

FCMB Group Plc delivers a 99% growth in Profit Before Tax to ₦157.3 billion for 1H 2026, extending the strong earnings momentum from FY 2025.

LAGOS, NIGERIA – 27 July 2026 FCMB Group Plc (Bloomberg: FCMB) (“FCMB Group”) announces its Unaudited Group Results for the half-year ended 30 June 2026.

FINANCIAL PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS

Earnings Analysis

- Gross earnings grew by 27.8% to ₦676.2 billion for 1H 2026 (1H 2025: ₦529.2 billion), driven by a 31.0% growth in interest income and a 22% growth in earning assets from ₦4.90 trillion to ₦5.98 trillion.
- Net Interest Income grew by 71.8% to ₦356.3 billion (1H 2025: ₦207.4 billion), as higher interest income was reinforced by a 2.7% Year-on-Year decline in interest expense, reflecting an improved low-cost deposit mix and lower cost of funds. This lifted Net Interest Margin to 11.2% for 1H 2026 (1H 2025: 9.1%).
- The Group’s digital business — comprising Payments, Lending and Wealth — sustained its growth trajectory, with digital revenue rising to ₦89.1 billion for 1H 2026 (1H 2025: ₦73.6 billion) and contributing 13.2% of gross earnings, as volumes continued to grow across lending, payments and wealth.
- Operating expenses grew by just 12.3% to ₦172.0 billion (1H 2025: ₦153.2 billion), reflecting disciplined cost management, easing inflation and the efficiency benefits of digital transformation. Cost-to-Income Ratio improved sharply to 41.4% for 1H 2026 (1H 2025: 57.0%), extending the improvement from 53.8% in FY 2025.
- Net impairment losses on financial instruments rose to ₦85.9 billion (1H 2025: ₦36.2 billion) as the Group front-loaded a decisive clean-up of stage 2 loans, including approximately ₦63.4 billion of write-offs. This reduced the Nigerian Banking subsidiary’s NGAAP non-performing loan ratio to 5.2% as at June 2026, restoring it closer to regulatory limits.
- Profit Before Tax grew by 99% to ₦157.3 billion for 1H 2026 (1H 2025: ₦79.1 billion), extending the growth momentum recorded in FY 2025. Profit After Tax increased by 90% to ₦139.9 billion (1H 2025: ₦73.4 billion), while annualised Return on Average Equity and Return on Average Assets strengthened to 27.9% and 3.5% respectively (1H 2025: 20.6% and 2.0%).
- Annualised Earnings Per Share (EPS) increased to ₦4.23 in 1H 2026 from ₦3.96 for FY 2025, despite a larger post-recapitalisation share base, demonstrating the Group’s enhanced earnings-generating capacity.

Balance Sheet Position

- Total assets increased by 9.5% to ₦8.36 trillion at June 2026 (December 2025: ₦7.63 trillion), as the Group continued to prioritise balance-sheet efficiency and optimisation.

- Loans and advances to customers grew by 5.2% to ₦2.49 trillion as at June 2026 (December 2025: ₦2.37 trillion), supported by continued growth in higher-return retail, SME and consumer lending, and foreign currency loans to corporate clients.
- Customer deposits grew by 11.4% to ₦4.92 trillion as at June 2026 (December 2025: ₦4.42 trillion), while low-cost deposit mix improved further to 74.9% (December 2025: 65.4%), leading to a decline in cost of funds YoY with interest expense declining by 2.7% YoY.
- Total equity grew by 40.3% to ₦1.17 trillion as at June 2026 (December 2025: ₦835.4 billion), supported by a growth in retained earnings and a ~₦227 billion capital injection during the second quarter of 2026, leading to a Capital Adequacy Ratio of 23.5% for 1H 2026, providing a sound capital buffer for growth.
- Assets Under Management grew by 14.3% to ₦1.95 trillion at June 2026 (December 2025: ₦1.70 trillion), supported by continued market-share gains at FCMB Pensions and FCMB Asset Management.

DIVISIONAL PERFORMANCE

The divisions of the Group reported Year-on-Year PBT growth and contribution as follows:

- Banking Group: PBT grew Year-on-Year by 80% to ₦116.6 billion in 1H 2026 (74% PBT contribution), benefiting from higher net-interest margins, improved low-cost deposit mix and operating cost efficiency.
- Non-Banking Businesses: Collectively, the Group's non-banking businesses contributed 26% of Group PBT, with profits increasing by 185% Year-on-Year to ₦40.7 billion, reinforcing the diversification of Groups earnings beyond banking.
 - Consumer Finance (Credit Direct Limited): PBT grew Year-on-Year by 92% to ₦17.7 billion in 1H 2026 (11% PBT contribution), sustaining its strong trajectory through technology-enabled origination, underwriting and distribution.
 - Investment Management (FCMB Pensions / FCMB Asset Management / FCMB Trustees): PBT grew Year-on-Year by 50% to ₦5.7 billion in 1H 2026 (4% PBT contribution), on continued growth in Assets Under Management and fee income.
 - Investment Banking (FCMB Capital Markets / CSL Stockbrokers): PBT grew Year-on-Year by 76% to ₦1.9 billion in 1H 2026 (1% PBT contribution), supported by renewed deal activity across debt and equity capital markets.

Speaking on the 1H 2026 results, Ladi Balogun, the Group Chief Executive Officer commented that:

"Our first-half performance demonstrates the strength of our recapitalised and diversified business model. We delivered record profitability despite accelerating the normalisation of asset quality towards regulatory thresholds, reflecting our commitment to building a stronger balance sheet for long-term growth. Expanding net interest margins, an improved low-cost deposit mix, disciplined cost management, and growing contributions from our non-banking businesses continue to enhance the quality and sustainability of our earnings. We remain firmly on track to deliver a Return on Equity (RoE) of over 25% for the 2026 financial year".
