PUBLIC DISCLAIMER ON IGUELEBA PROPERTY

The public, corporate organizations, contractors, suppliers, financial institutions, investors, and all other interested parties are hereby notified that Ellah Lakes Plc (the company) is the lawful holder and occupier of approximately 2,383.57 hectares of land situated at Iguelaba, Edo State, by virtue of a valid Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Edo State Government (the "ELP Property").

Median Agro Investment Limited and Mr. Olumide Kayode Akinsanya are currently the subject of various legal proceedings by Ellah Lakes Plc (Including trespass, encroachment, assault and false imprisonment) for which substantial damages are being sought.

Accordingly, any person or entity dealing with Median Agro Investment Limited, Mr. Olumide Kayode Akinsanya, or any person or entity acting through or under them in furtherance of any illegal actions relating to the ELP Property does so entirely at their own risk.

Ellah Lakes Plc will not recognize any transaction, agreement, occupation, development, construction, financing, sale, lease, or other dealing concerning the ELP Property that is undertaken by or through any illegal action of either Median Agro Investment Limited, Mr. Olumide Kayode Akinsanya, their agents or privies.

Furthermore, any individual, corporate body, contractor, financier, agent, or collaborator found to have knowingly aided, assisted, facilitated, or participated in any unlawful acts of trespass, encroachment, interference with, or dealings affecting the property (now subject of legal proceedings), shall be held fully accountable and will be subjected to both civil and criminal proceedings, under the laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

This notice is issued to protect the Company's proprietary interests and to ensure that members of the public are not misled into transactions that may expose them to substantial legal and financial consequences.

Signed:
