

UAC of Nigeria PLC Enters into an Agreement to Sell its 73.29% Stake in Livestock Feeds PLC to Sunbeth Treenuts and Sesame Limited

Lagos, Nigeria – 30 September 2026 – UAC of Nigeria PLC (“UAC”) has entered into an agreement to sell its 73.29% shareholding in Livestock Feeds PLC (“LSF” or the “Company”), one of Nigeria’s leading animal feed manufacturers, to Sunbeth Treenuts and Sesame Limited (“Sunbeth”) (the “Transaction”), subject to regulatory approvals. Upon completion, UAC will receive a cash consideration of ₦19.5 billion, representing ₦8.85 per LSF share.

UAC acquired LSF in 2013 and under UAC’s ownership, LSF has grown into a feed business of national scale, with production capacity and a distribution network serving farmers and customers across the country.

Sunbeth is an African agribusiness group with capabilities spanning agricultural origination, supply chain management, warehousing, trading and processing. The acquisition of LSF represents an important step in Sunbeth’s continued evolution into a broader, integrated agro-industrial platform. The Transaction brings together Sunbeth’s deep experience at origin, extensive producer and sourcing networks, and growing processing capabilities with LSF’s established manufacturing footprint, technical expertise, brands and nationwide distribution network.

Sunbeth will work with LSF’s management and employees to build on the Company’s strong heritage while supporting continued improvements in operational efficiency, supply-chain resilience, product quality and sustainable growth.

Fola Aiyesimoju, Group Managing Director of UAC, said:

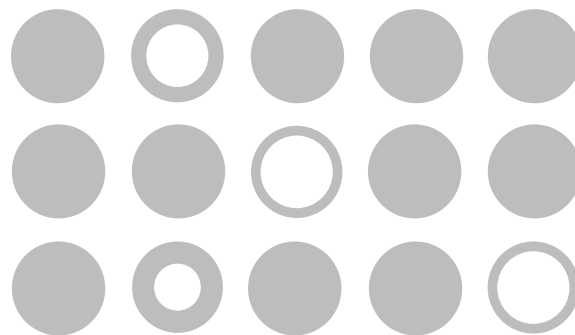

“UAC has worked with the Company’s management to drive significant growth and expansion with revenues increasing 5x and profitability increasing 18x. Following the Transaction, Sunbeth is keen to continue to work with Livestock Feeds’ management and employees to drive the next phase of the Company’s expansion, leveraging its rich heritage in the Nigerian agro-allied sector.”

Jeroen de Ruijter, Chief Financial Officer of Sunbeth Agro HoldCo, said:

“This acquisition represents an important milestone in Sunbeth’s long-term strategy to build a more integrated African agribusiness platform. Our business has developed deep capabilities at origin, working across agricultural supply chains and building strong relationships with producers, customers, and global partners. We believe the next phase of our growth is about combining those strengths with world-class processing and manufacturing capabilities closer to the markets we serve.

“Livestock Feeds is a business with a remarkable heritage, established brands, experienced people and an important role in Nigeria’s agricultural economy. We see significant opportunity to build on these foundations. Our immediate priority will be to work with the existing management team and employees to strengthen the business, improve supply-chain efficiency and support its next phase of growth.

“For Sunbeth, this transaction is about much more than acquiring an asset. It reflects our confidence in Nigeria’s agricultural sector and our ambition to continue investing in businesses and capabilities that can strengthen African food systems, create value locally, and build globally competitive agricultural enterprises from Africa.”

Banwo & Ighodalo served as legal adviser to UAC. FigPartners Africa and CardinalStone Partners served as financial advisers to Sunbeth, with Olaniwun Ajayi LP acting as legal adviser.
