Commenting on the results, Mr. Wassim Elhusseini, CEO/Managing Director of Nestlé Nigeria PLC, said: "Our performance in the last nine months of 2026 demonstrates continued progress in strengthening the fundamentals of our business. Delivering our eighth consecutive quarter of profitability since returning to profit in Q4 2024, together with revenue growth of 10.4% and Profit After Tax of ₦103.4 billion, reflects the resilience of our brands, the discipline of our execution and the commitment of our people."

Looking ahead, he added: "We remain optimistic about the outlook and will continue to pursue sustainable, profitable growth with focus and prudence. Our priorities remain focused on deepening consumer relevance through innovation and renovation, strengthening margin management, enhancing efficiency across our value chain, and making targeted investments that support the long-term health of our brands and business.

"At same time, we will continue to invest in our people and support the communities where we operate, while remaining agile in responding to an evolving macroeconomic and geopolitical environment. We are confident in our ability to navigate these dynamics responsibly, create sustainable value for our shareholders and stakeholders, and make a positive contribution to the communities we serve."
