2. REGULATIONS FOR DEALING IN NB PLC'S SHARES AND SECURITIES

In compliance with The Nigerian Stock Exchange's Rules, Nigerian Breweries Plc has in place Regulations to guide the Board, employees, and other persons classified as insiders when effecting transactions in the Company's shares and securities. The Company's Regulations for Dealing in Shares and other Securities provide, amongst others, the period when transactions are not allowed to be effected on the Company's shares and securities ("Closed Period") as well as disclosure requirements when effecting such transactions. All concerned are obliged to observe the provisions of the Regulations when dealing in the Company's shares and securities. The Company has made inquiries of all affected persons and is not aware of any infringement of the policy during the period.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION

a. Statement of compliance

These condensed interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standard (IFRS) IAS 34 'Interim Financial Reporting'. They do not include all of the information required for full annual financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements of Nigerian Breweries Plc as at and for the year ended 31st December 2025.

b. Functional and presentation currency

These condensed interim financial statements are presented in Naira, which is the Company's functional currency. All financial information presented in Naira has been rounded to the nearest thousand unless stated otherwise.

c. Use of estimates and judgments

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make judgements, estimates, and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, income, and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

In preparing these condensed interim financial statements, the significant judgements made by management in applying the Company's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those that applied to the financial statements as at and for the year ended 31st December 2025.

Notes to the condensed interim financial statements

4. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a. General

The accounting policies applied in these condensed interim financial statements are the same as those applied in the Company's financial statements at and for the year ended 31st December 2025.

b. Income tax

Income tax expenses are recognized based on management's best estimation of the weighted average expected full-year income tax rate.

5. SEASONALITY

The performance of the Company is subject to seasonal fluctuations as a result of weather conditions and festivities. The Company's full-year results and volumes are dependent on the performance in the peak-selling season, typically resulting in higher revenue and profitability in the last quarter of the year. The impact of seasonality is also noticeable in several working capital-related items such as inventory, trade receivables, and payables.
