GUINEA INSURANCE PLC COMPLETES PAYMENT OF STATUTORY DEPOSIT IN COMPLIANCE WITH NIIRA 2025 CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

Guinea Insurance Plc (“Guinea Insurance” or “the Company”) is pleased to inform its esteemed Shareholders and other Stakeholders that it has fully complied with the statutory deposit requirement prescribed under the Nigerian Insurance Industry Reform Act (NIIRA) 2025.

In compliance with the provisions of the Act, the Company has remitted the required statutory deposit to the Central Bank of Nigeria (CBN), bringing its total statutory deposit balance to ₦1.5 billion, representing 10% of the minimum capital requirement applicable to non-life insurance companies.

This milestone represents another significant step in the Company's recapitalisation programme and underscores Guinea Insurance's commitment to meeting all regulatory requirements within the stipulated timelines.

The Board and Management appreciate the continued confidence, loyalty, and support of shareholders, policyholders, brokers, customers, and business partners as the Company progresses toward its strategic growth objectives

Thank you.
