CADBURY NIGERIA PLC – NOTIFICATION OF RESIGNATION AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

This is to notify Nigerian Exchange Limited and the investing public that the Board of Directors of Cadbury Nigeria PLC (Cadbury or the Company) has accepted the resignation of Mr. Abhiroop Chuckarbutty who resigned from the Board effective 26th March 2026.

The Board has appointed Mr. Hisham Ezz El Arab as a Non-Executive Director and Dr. Rasaq Adedoyin Salami as an Independent Non-Executive Director, effective 26th March 2026.

The Board warmly welcome Mr. Ezz El Arab and Dr. Salami and wish them well in their new roles.

Mr. Hisham Ezz El Arab's Profile

Hisham Ezz El Arab is a highly accomplished executive with 32 years of extensive leadership experience in the FMCG sector, marked by a distinguished career across Danone and Procter & Gamble. He has a proven track record of driving significant business acceleration, strategic growth, and complex turnarounds across diverse global markets.

Prior to his current role as Business Unit President for Sub-Saharan Africa at Mondelēz International, Hisham served as Regional Vice President for Asia, Middle East and Africa (AMEA) at Danone, overseeing business acceleration and strategic growth. Hisham's profound expertise in operational excellence, value-driven leadership, and fostering high-performing cultures is firmly rooted in his strong academic foundation, holding a BSc in Mechanical Engineering from the American University in Cairo and having completed management courses at prestigious institutions like MIT, INSEAD, IMD, and IESE. This, combined with his proprietary '5P Roadmap for Business Transformation' model, uniquely positions him to empower consumers to 'snack right' and unlock significant strategic value in this critical growth region for Mondelēz.

Hisham's blend of deep professional acumen and a personal commitment to global leadership and learning is reflected in his guest lectureship at the London Business School and advisory role to the French government. Hisham is French-Egyptian, speaks four languages and is a father to three children.
