

Clarification on IPO-Related Media Reports

Lagos, 13 April 2026

Zichis Agro-Allied Industries Plc (“the Company”) has noted recent media reports suggesting that the Company is set to undertake an Initial Public Offering (IPO) or related capital raising activity.

The Company wishes to clarify that no official announcement has been made in respect of any IPO or public offering of shares at this time.

However, the Company confirms that it has proposed to seek shareholders’ approval at its forthcoming Annual General Meeting (AGM) to raise additional capital, which may be through equity, debt, or a combination of both, subject to regulatory approvals and market conditions.

At this stage, the structure, timing, and details of any such capital raising have not been finalized, and no specific transaction has been concluded.

As a company listed on the Nigerian Exchange Limited (NGX), Zichis remains committed to the highest standards of corporate governance, transparency, and timely disclosure. Accordingly, any material corporate actions or capital market activities will be formally communicated through the appropriate regulatory channels.

The Company acknowledges the continued interest of investors and market participants in its operations and performance and remains focused on delivering sustainable value through disciplined strategic execution.

Shareholders and the investing public are advised to rely solely on official disclosures and filings made by the Company through the Nigerian Exchange (NGX) and other authorized regulatory platforms when making investment decisions.

The Company appreciates the continued support of its shareholders and remains committed to maintaining transparency in all its communications.
