Management Commentary

Managing Director/CEO, Transcorp Hotels Plc, Uzoamaka Oshogwe commented:

“Our Q1 2026 performance underscores the strength of a strategy anchored on discipline, operational efficiency, and consistent value creation. The 15% growth in Profit Before Tax, alongside the improvement in gross profit margin to 77%, reflects the resilience of our fundamentals and the deliberate execution of our growth agenda. Transcorp Hotels is not only growing; we are setting new benchmarks for world-class hospitality in Africa and remain committed to continuously elevating that standard.”

Chief Finance Officer, Transcorp Hotels Plc, Oluwatobiloba Ojedian, added:

“These results reflect a clear and compelling story of a team deeply committed to operational efficiency and cost management without compromising our service standard. In Q1 2026, we achieved revenue of ₦22.41 billion, a 9% growth from the ₦20.64 billion in Q1 2025, while effectively reducing our cost of sales margin 25% in Q1 2025 to 23% in Q1 2026. This demonstrates the impact of disciplined execution across all areas of the business.”
